Standards and rules for safe diving and liability release

By taking part in the dive program of Aquatic Divers, you agree to follow the safety rules of no-decompression diving and the directions about these rules and about protecting the underwater world given by the management, the dive instructors and the divemasters. If you break these rules, you may be excluded from our dive program without any compensation. If an accident happens because the given rules were ignored, the diver is responsible for all damages and costs of the rescue and medical care.

I, _____, agree to the following:

1. I present a medical statement that I am fit for diving (not older than two years up to the age of 40; above 40, not older than one year).
2. I pay attention during briefings and follow the instructions and advice of the management, the dive instructors and the dive guides.
3. I never dive alone.
4. I follow the buddy system on every dive: before the dive I agree with my buddy on communication, procedures, reuniting if we are separated, and emergency procedures.
5. I watch my own and my buddy's air; after ascending at least 40 bar must be left.
6. I keep my buoyancy under control and check my weighting at the surface before the dive.
7. I never dive without a dive computer.
8. My maximum depth depends on my diving certification level.
9. I always make a safety stop at 5 m for 3 minutes, stay within the limits of the recreational dive tables and never plan decompression dives.
10. I know my diving equipment, never dive without a BCD, and do a buddy check before every dive.
11. I never wear gloves (required by law), except for a medical reason or on wreck dives.
12. I keep in good mental and physical shape for diving and avoid dangerous drugs and alcohol.
13. I drink enough water during the day (at least 3 litres).
14. I stop diving at least 24 hours before flying.
15. Divers with fewer than 25 dives must be guided (by law).
16. The dive center may change the dive sites because of weather conditions without notice.
17. I do not touch the coral and do not feed the fish.
18. I do not have Covid-19, any of its variants or its symptoms; I keep social distance to protect myself from Covid-19; and I do not hold Aquatic Divers or its staff responsible if I get infected with Covid-19 or any of its variants.
